Food and More: Dutchess Outreach Programs

The Lunch Box serves scratch-made hot lunch and dinner six days a week and provides meals to children in two after-school programs.

The Pantry provides free grocery packages for individuals and families.

The Fresh Market, our farmers' market, affords locally grown fruits, vegetables, and other locally produced goods to City of Poughkeepsie residents.

The Free Farm Stand offers free fruits and vegetables every third Friday, year-round.

The Dutchess Outreach Urban Farm grows produce for our Fresh Market and is home to the Fallkill Community Garden, where gardeners rent plots to grow food for themselves or their families.

Beyond food, we provide advocacy and referral; emergency assistance with prescriptions, evictions and utilities; children's clothing; winter coats; and household items available to social service agencies for their clients.
